Sales Rep John Boyle takes over New Territories

Bass-Mollett Publishers Sales Representative John Boyle takes over Dave Chiampa's Territories

Effective February 1, 2018, Dave Chiampa has resigned his position as a Bass-Mollett independent sales professional to focus exclusively on his funeral home, Chiampa Funeral Home in Shrewsbury, MA. "Everyone at Bass-Mollett would like to thank Dave for his 20+ years of outstanding and meaningful service to Bass-Mollett and the funeral homes we serve," said Tadd Flowers, owner and vice-president of operations for Bass-Mollett. Dan Sheehan, President of Bass-Mollett added, "We wish Dave the best with his mission to serve the families of Boston as they cope with dealing with the loss of their loved one."

We are excited to announce that our new sales representative for Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Vermont and Maine is John Boyle. John is a 2nd generation funeral professional who has represented Bass-Mollett successfully for 20 years in Connecticut and Vermont and then added western Massachusetts 4 years ago. "John has a deep passion for taking care of his funeral homes and strives to help each of them enhance their families' experiences. We are confident John will represent Bass-Mollett very well in his new territory as he has done an excellent job with his existing funeral homes," said Sheehan.

About Bass-Mollett Publishers

From generation to generation the Bass-Mollett family has carried on a tradition of quality service to the funeral industry. From its conception in 1951, the company's main goal has been to meet the special needs of funeral directors. Bass-Mollett understands those needs, as its founders were funeral directors. The company has grown and progressed over the years, but it is still owned and operated by members of the founding family. These family members are still striving to make Bass-Mollett a company that funeral directors can trust and rely on.
